Subject: Unauthorized printing of photograph

Dear Mr. Frey:

PA-TEC has posted a photo of me on the PA-TEC website which I am requesting be removed immediately. You did not seek proper authority from the photographer or from me for posting my photo on your website.

You do not have permission from the photographer my photo on your website.

I have not given PA-TEC permission to post my photo on your website or to be used in any document produced by your organization.

I am private citizen whose right to privacy PA-TEC has violated.

You will remove my photo from your website or face legal action.

Any response from you or PA-TEC other than compliance with my request will be considered harassment and will be forwarded to the proper authorities for discompensation.

Aissia Richardson
